Democratic society & Educational Philosophy

A. Stated & emphasize democratic values

Democratic values stressed for satisfying personal & social life.

Democratic values

1. Recognition of the importance of every individual human being as a human being, regardless of race, national, social, or economic status
 2. Opportunities for wide participation in all phases of activities in the social groups in the society
 3. Encouragement of variability rather than demanding a single type of personality
 4. Faith in intelligence as a method of dealing with important problems rather than depending upon the authority of an autocratic or aristocratic group.
- Schools accepting these values as basic ensure that these values are set as objectives in their educational programs.
- The behavioral objectives stated i.e.
- values & habits
 - ideals & practices
